Interesting. My family initially spelled their name H-A-R-R-O-L-D within one generation after coming to live in the Tulpehoken creek NW Lancaster Co., PA in September 1743, but they were from Wurttemberg, Germany where they spelled their name H-(umlaut O)-R-O-L-D (and sometimes -T). Tradition has it these folks originated in Norman France and were forced out of France because of their anti-Roman Catholic faith as Huguenots. The first emigrant (George Christoph I) had two sons (John George) the younger of whom moved to Chapman Tp, Snyder Co., PA spelling his name H-E-R-R-O-L-D, while the elder (George Christoph) moved to Hempfield Tp, Westmoreland Co., PA and spelled his name as you do today. Some of the offspring of the latter branch substituted the E for the A in the early 19th century when they moved to Athens Co., OHIO, just why we don't know. At any rate, before Normandy there seems to be a Scandanavian tie-in, particularly if Normandy is derivative of the "Northmen."

I have some information on Harrolds from Westmoreland Co. I hope you can make a connection.

CATHERINE HARROLD born in 1760 in Westmoreland Co., PA married Johannes (Captain John) Cribbs. She is the daughter of GEORGE CHRISTOPHER HOEROLDT, JR. and Maria Catharina Pontius.

GEORGE CHRISTOPHER HOEROLDT, JR. born October 22, 1723 in Steinheim an der Mur, Kreis Neckar, Wurtemberg and died April 1, 1787 in Hempfield Twp, Westmoreland Co., PA. He is the son of GEORG CHRISTOPH HOEROLDT and Maria Catharina Scheelkopf.

GEORG CHRISTOPH HOEROLDT born December 25, 1688 in Steinheim an der Mur, Kreis Neckar, Wurtemberg is the son of HANS MICHAEL HOEROLDT and Mararetha Klein.

HANS MICHAEL HOEROLDT born October 2, 1663 in Steinheim an der Mur, Kreis Neckar, Wurtemberg and died November 12, 1693. He is the son of GEORGE CHRISTOPHER HOEROLDT and Anna Magdalena Mueller.

GEORGE CHRISTOPHER HOEROLDT born 1616 in Steinheim an der Mur, Kreis Neckar, Wurtemberg and died 1684.

I hope this helps.

FAMILY LEADS

The Harrold Family

Submitted by Richard A. Newhouse

The first Harrold family to settle in Westmoreland County was that of Christopher (Christoph) and Catharine (Catharina) "Herold". They arrived sometime between 1773 and 1774 with five children, John (b. 1745); Peter (b. 1754); Christopher (b. 1758); Catharine (b. 1760); and Daniel (b. 1764). Tax records indicate they came from Berks County.

The earliest Lutheran Church record of this family list "Christoph Herold" as a sponsor to a baptism on October 24, 1773. However, there is evidence that his son John might have acted as a sponsor a month before.

Some research suggests that Christopher may have been living in the area for a short while with a John Herold between 1758 and 1769. It has been said that Christopher and/or John staked out a tract of Indian land, about 158 acres, which was named "Good Purpose". The claim was made on behalf of the Evangelical Lutheran Church.The Church received a warrant and patent in the 1780s and this tract became the site of the first Zion Lutheran Church in Hempfield Township.

The Harrold line appears to go back to Germany. However, some researchers claim that the Harrolds lived earlier in France and were French Hugenots before living in Germany. In any case, the father of Christopher has been identified as Christoph Herold, Sr. who was born in Wurttemberg, Germany, about 1721 and immigrated to Berks County after arriving in Philadelphia about 1743.

The Harrolds were, of course, members of the Harrold Zion Lutheran Church in Hempfield Township. The families of all five children show up in the church and civil records within the county between 1773 and 1801.

The following is a list of some surnames known to connect to Harrold descendants from 1773 to 1900:

Altman, Armstrong, Arnold, Bair, Baker, Barclay, Baughman, Baum, Beatty, Berlin, Blank, Borland, Bracht, Brinker, Brinkley, Bush, Buzzard, Cable, Caldwell, Clark, Clawson, Davis, Goodlin, Cort, Cribbs (Krebs), Detar, Doty, Dowell, Eisaman, Ewing, Fisher, Foster, Fox, Harper, Henry, Johnson, Kaylor, Keifer, Kimmel, Lauffer, Leard, Lock, Long, Lyons, Milliron, Miller, Painter (Bender), Null, Pisor, Reamer, Reddick, Repine, Rhodes, Ruff, Rumbaugh, Seanor, Shotts, Siegfried, Silvius, Smeltzer, Smith, Snyder, Stanton, Steiner, Sutton, Thomas, Troxal, Van Dyke, Walthour, Weaver, Wible, Wicke, Willi, Williams

Local People Preserving

Local History

Our purpose is the study, preservation and sharing of the records of the settlements of Westmoreland County. Our interest is not just the political and military history, but the lives and families of those who have made Westmoreland County their home. We have a particular concern for the history of the Swiss, Germanic, French Huguenot and Scandinavian peoples which has been too often neglected in the area of Old Westmoreland County.

The Baltzer Meyer Historical Society was incorporated in 1995. We are in possession of two buildings, both having great historical value; a one-room school house (Harrolds #8 built in 1881) and the Old Zion Lutheran Church (built in 1884). We have been renovating the school house since 1996. We plan on restoring it to function as a museum, a place for contemporary students to peek into the past and visualize how education has changed over the years. The Old Zion Church has become our headquarters. Here, the Paul Miller Ruff genealogical library is housed, along with our publishing office and society office.

We are dedicated to preserving the local history and educating others about this area that much of the country can call the home of their ancestors.
